HERE AND THERE.

Miss Kate Ryan is visiting Miss Jennie Wood at Washington.

Mr. John Anderson returns to his home in St. Louis Saturday.

Mr. Charles Hunter left this week to attend the University at Wooster, O.

Colonel J. Barbour Russell was interviewing Ripley merchants yesterday.

Miss Phoebe H. Forman and Mr. John Anderson are guests of Miss Gay Durrett in the country.

Mrs. Charley Bratton and little daughter, Myrtle Bratton, are visiting relatives at Garrison this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Brodt left yesterday on the noon flyer for a three weeks' visit to relatives in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Lee B. Gray was summoned by wire to Cincinnati yesterday on account of the illness of her grandson, Lee Daulton.

Messrs. Durrett & Co. have purchased over two hundred hogsheads of tobacco around Sardis and are still buying.

"Wine, Woman and Song," one of the cleverest and one of the clearest vaudeville and specialty combinations on the road, delighted a moderate sized but respectable audience at the Opera-house last night. Those who missed it missed it.

Officer J. P. Wallace yesterday killed a rabid dog. He first shot the animal in the neighborhood of the Roundhouse following him to Watkins' Cut on the L. and N. where the final shot was fired. Before he was killed the dog had bitten several other dogs and a pet lamb.

The Board of Health and most of the physicians were in conference yesterday afternoon to devise measures to prevent a spread of the smallpox. A general vaccination was agreed upon, and localities thought to be dangerous will be placarded. However, there's no reason for a "scare."

John Holton, aged 27, son of Jerry Holton, died at 8 o'clock last night at the home of his father on the Hill City pike. He had been sick about three months. He was a worthy young colored man, much respected by all. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from Scott Chapel.

News, news, news! It's enough to give a man the blues. Nobody married and nobody died; nobody broken an arm or a head; nobody came in to talk of the "crap"; no one got hoarse and started a scrawl; no one got run in for taking a horn; nobody racketed, and nobody born. Oh, for a bucket, a riot, a fuss! Someone to come in and kick up a mass; someone to stir up the peace-laden air; somebody's comment to give us a scare. Somebody thumped within an inch of his life; somebody run off with another man's wife; someone come in and pay up their dues; anything, anything, just so it's news.

WE MUST REPEAT.

When Everybody in Maysville Tells the Same Story.

It is hard to say new things about Doan's Kidney Pills. They cure the lame and aching back, the sufferer from kidney disorders and the troubles of those whose urinary organs are wrong in its action. That they do this is so easily proven that not a vestige of doubt remains. Public endorsement of local instances is easily proven. Read this case:

Mr. M. L. Spencer, grocer, of Forest avenue, says:

"For many years I was greatly troubled from the lack of proper action of the kidneys. I found the incipient state of diabetes and learning about Doan's Kidney Pills sold at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, I procured a box. The benefit derived from its use was so strong in continuing the treatment. The results obtained in the cases of others I know as well as in my own is a guarantee of the great value of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box.

RIVER NEWS.

Both the sawmills here have lots of timber at the river.

The rocks opposite Aberdeen are showing up plainly.

The Uncle Sam passed up with six empties for Kanawha.

There are lots of log rafts being run out of Kentucky river.

The wreck of the Dick Brown has been removed from the river.

A gasoline launch is being built at Cincinnati to run 20 miles an hour.

J. M. Montgomery has purchased the towboat Frank Gilmore for $7,000.

The Kanawha passed down yesterday to enter the Cincinnati-Madison trade.

Captain Kington's boats, the Wells and Pearce, are carrying lots of freight on the present low stage of the river.

The Avalon for Pomeroy was up yesterday morning; but it's no telling how far she'll get now when she'll get back.

The shallowest place in the river around this city is along the Kentucky shore from the Pumping Station, as far up as the bend.

Diver Ed. Moore is at Pomeroy cleaning some obstructions out of the river to enable the Peacock Coal Company to build a Marine Ways.

About the biggest things in the river at present are the sandbars. The one at the mouth of Lawrence creek could be used to a good advantage as a summer resort.

There should be some way of preventing the small boys doing so much skiffing. They are venturesome to a fault, going so close to passing steamers that the Pilots in many instances have been compelled to stop the wheel in order to keep from running over them and drowning them. Several people have complained of the weather being too hot to send them to school; but we are quite sure it isn't as hot and uncomfortable, and certainly not as dangerous—in school as it is out on the river. It will be to some parents' advantage to see into this matter. And look after the kids after supper also, as it is too dark these nights for a man who knows how to manage a skiff to be out the river, much less small boys.

BECKHAM'S DEFENSE OF GOEBEL LAW

Louisville Commercial.
Governor Beckham announced at Louisville that he was ready to discuss the Goebel Law, and this is his defense of that infamous measure:

"The law was passed to stop Republican stealing in this state from the Republican. In 1890 we enacted the Goebel Law. It was not a perfect law, but it was better than the law it replaced. We want such a law, however, that the honest Republican can find no fault with. I don't know how we can get such a law, though, because the Republican would not be satisfied with a law they could not manipulate to their own base ends. I want to be elected honestly. I would not take an office to which I was elected dishonestly."

Governor Beckham says he does not know how a law can be passed "that the meanest Republican can find no fault with." We will tell him! Let him write another message to the Legislature, and say to his Democratic friends in that body: "Make the Election Commission non-partisan by putting two Democrats and two Republicans on them. If they disagree provide for an appeal to the Courts. Divide the election officers equally between the two parties, to be selected from lists furnished by the respective party organizations. Throw every other safe-guard about the casting and counting of the vote that will insure an honest election and proclaim the wishes of the majority." If Governor Beckham will withdraw his colorless creed delivered at the opening of the Legislature and replace it with a vigorous, straight-forward, courageous demand for a fair election law he will gain the respect of the people and hasten the passage of an honest law.

Governor Beckham's hypocritical statement: "I would not take an office to which I was elected dishonestly," is convincing proof that he does not realize the enormity of his offense in accepting a stolen office. It is useless to argue with one whose moral sense is so blunted.
